Hand Building with Paper Clay

August 21-26, 2017

Ghost Ranch, New Mexico

Sponsored by NMPCA: the New Mexico Potters and Clay Artists.
Details and register before July 20, 2017 at the NMPCA website:

NMPCA.org

Jerry Bennett, a leading international paper clay artist, conducts a hands-on workshop providing opportunity for students to explore and experience new approaches to functional pottery and sculptural forms using paper clay.

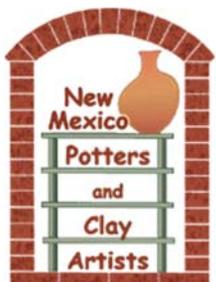

Jerry guides artists of all experience levels through how to make paper clay and bonding slips for hand-built forms. In this five-day workshop, expand your understanding of this unique material to make both functional pottery and sculptural forms. Gain valuable insight as Jerry shares practical, problem-solving advice related to your studio work. With paper clay, you can break the rules and discover new and exciting ways of working.

Jerry Bennett is currently an active studio artist in the Philadelphia area and runs the Two Rivers Studio. He has given workshops and lectures at over fifty colleges, schools and art centers throughout the USA. He was the leader of the Second International Paper Symposium in Kecskemet Hungary. For additional information please visit www.jerrybennett.net.

This is a unique opportunity to immerse yourself in the beauty of Ghost Ranch and learn about paper clay from an expert.

The NMPCA has been holding workshops at Ghost Ranch for over 45 years. We invite you to join us for an unsurpassed experience. As a preview, here's a view from the ceramic studio!
